

Supplements and Subsidies

Your employees can access supplements and subsidies through the provincial government. These can help them get to work and sustain employment. Each supplement or subsidy has different restrictions and options, so make sure to check the Government of British Columbia's General Supplements & Programs page for more info.

- The Transportation Subsidy supports PWD assistance recipients access transit, like buses. A bus pass, or $52 monthly will be provided.

- There is a Community Volunteer Program supplement of $100/month for people with disabilities who are interested in volunteering.

- The Confirmed Job Supplement may be available, if an individual obtains confirmed employment, to help them prepare for the job start including transportation, health and safety supplies (gloves, goggles etc.,) and clothing or uniform.

- If your employee uses a service animal, a Guide Dog & Service Dog Supplement may be available.

- A Moving, Transportation, & Living Costs supplement may be available for individuals moving for their employment.

- The Training Initiative Supplement is available to recipients looking to gain experience through volunteer work. This supplement differs from the volunteering program in its direct employment-related experience.
